Board

President Jimmy Patrick called the meeting to order at 10:28 a.m.

There was no Treasurer report. Roderick Chambers stated that we need to discuss the spring workshop.

Old Business

The spring workshop has been scheduled for April 12, 2023, at the Doster Center. The cost will be $560 plus $119 for insurance for the one-day event. Jimmy Patrick asked for suggestions about meals for the workshop. Roderick Chambers suggested doing the Boston Butt meals. Terri Vosbury suggested everyone go out and try to get one Boston Butt donated. We would try to get enough food to feed at least 200 people. Everyone collectively agreed to get the food donated. The registration fee for the previous workshop was $35. No one wanted to raise the price due to fear of lack of participation.

Roderick asked for suggestions on speakers and working on a theme. Rebecca Bensema suggested Art and Cognitive Behavioral Therapy and Re-Entry. Terri Vosbury suggested getting OAA (Offender Alumni Association) involved. Rebecca also suggested getting Ingram State Technical College involved. Michelle Patrick wanted to make sure that the training would be geared towards all law enforcement. Roderick stated that he would reach out to Johnny Hollingsworth to speak for possibly the second half of the day. Roderick suggested giving away at least two door prizes for the workshop. Jimmy asked if everyone was aware of what committee they are on. Jimmy suggested the theme "Making a Difference". Everyone agreed.

New Business

Jimmy processed doing a golf tournament for a fundraiser leading up to the Fall Conference. Rebecca suggested involving Jill Stallworth, ABPP Executive Director's Assistant, to help with the golf tournament. She has worked on tournaments in the past. The golf tournament will need to be in September 2023. Eddie Swindall volunteered to work on the tournament. Nick Ward suggested Highland Golf Club in Birmingham as a possible location. Jimmy asked that everyone at least sign up and participate. Jimmy asked about finding sponsors for the tournament, 18 is the goal. Jimmy also asked that everyone make sure they know what committee they are on. Roderick asked that Terri get Bios for speakers. Jimmy asked if there was anything about the fall conference that needed to be discussed. He also stated that dates for the fall conference will be October 11th – October 13th. Jimmy asked that everyone start thinking of a theme for the fall conference.
